

Title IX Administrator receives notice of a violation; depending on the circumstances of the report, the procedures that will guide the process are below for students, faculty, staff and others. The administrator ensures reports are investigated in a timely, fair, and impartial manner.

